

The Supreme Court has determined: All codes, rules and regulations are for government authorities only, not humans in accordance with God's laws. All codes, rules and regulations are unconstitutional and lacking due process.

In United States constitutional law, police power is the capacity of the states to regulate behavior and enforce order within their territory for the betterment of the health, safety, morals, and general welfare of their inhabitants.^[1] Police power is defined in each jurisdiction by the legislative body, which determines the public purposes that need to be served by legislation.^[2] Under the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the powers not delegated to the Federal Government are reserved to the states or to the people. This implies that the Federal Government does not possess all possible powers, because most of these are reserved to the State governments, and others are reserved to the people.

Police power is exercised by the legislative and executive branches of the various states through the enactment and enforcement of laws. States have the power to compel obedience to these laws through whatever measures they see fit, provided these measures do not infringe upon any of the rights protected by the United States Constitution or their own state constitutions and are not unreasonably arbitrary or oppressive. Methods of enforcement can include legal sanctions, physical means, and other forms of coercion and inducement. Controversies over the exercise of state police power can arise when exercise by state authorities conflicts with individual rights and freedoms.

It operates as a near nullity or a fiction of law."

Devonte King

The North Platte police department has been aware of the plate PR1VAT3. They have been following Devonte King around town since 09/2020. No stop or arrest have been made. Devonte King is vocal on his Youtube channel ~~the~~ Police the Police. Under the 14th Amendment equal protection clause Devonte King has the right to travel freely and unencumbered. Since I, Kayla Reed am not vocal on the internet due to having a 12 hr days, 6 days a week job and three children, they are trying to extort me out of money and deprive me of life, liberty and property. I Kayla Reed claim

Motion to not Dismiss

Your Honor,

First of all, all of the charges were unlawful. From the Pictures I will present with this letter there is no way on earth that Mr. Hovey and Mr. Proehl or the North Platte Police Department can mistake my automobile as a commercial motor vehicle. Mr. Proehl and Mr. Hovey ignored my claim of trespass, ignored my written statement, all with no regards to the Constitution. Mr. Proehl and Mr. Hovey forced unconstitutional codes, rules, and regulations upon me and my property unlawfully.

To address Mr. King's claims
Mr. King recorded half of the unlawful stop. At some point later, in the video Mr. King claims they are searching private property. and on video, Mr. Hovey turns to the camera and yells, "Yes, we are going to take it too." At that time, Mr. Hovey had plenty of time to give Mr. King his property. Once Mr. King realized a tow truck was coming to take his property, he left in his other property. Same plate as other automobile taken by Mr. Proehl and Mr. Hovey.

Please note, I was unlawfully imprisoned for a total of four charges. When I woke up in jail for court the next day, I had one charge pending which was obstructing a Peace officer, which I fought to the very end and the judge looked beyond the protected guarantees of the Constitution. In favor of a unlawful statute all to generate revenue. I had no chance of winning because the Police and courthouse are working together against the Constitution. The judge dismissed every Constitutional claim I had to ~~generate~~ extort me out of money. I have broken no law, I have done no wrong. The judge unconstitutionally fined me $300.00 for the unlawful arrest of not giving my name for traveling free and unencumbered.

Contradicting Statements

Kayla Reed
Devonte King

I have written statements that the North Platte police department and it's members did have knowledge that Mr. King and Mrs. Reed was exercising the right to travel via Mr. King's youtube channel. Mr. King and Mrs. Reed has been using the Constitution to travel freely and unencumbered from regulations, statues, and licensing.

16Am Jur 2d., Sec. 257:

"The actual existence of a statute prior to determination, that it is unconstitutional is an operative fact and may have consequences which can not justify being ignored, when a statute which has been in effect for some time is declared unconstitutional, questions of rights claimed to have become vested of status of prior determinations deemed to have finality an acted upon accordingly and of public policy in the light of the nature, both of the statute and of it's previous application demand examination. It has been said that in all inclusive statement of the principle of absolute retroactive inviolability cannot be justified. An unconstitutional statute is not necessarily a nullity it may have indeterminate consequences binding on the people."

1 "A state may not impose a charge for the enjoyment of a right granted by the Federal Constitution and that a flat license tax here involves restraints in advance the constitutional liberties of Press and Religion and inevitably tends to suppress their existence. That the ordinance is non-discriminatory and that it applies also to peddlers of wares and merchandise is immaterial. The liberties granted by the first amendment are and in a preferred position. Since the privilege in question is guaranteed by the Federal Constitution and exist independently of the states authority, the inquiry as to whether the state has given something for which it cannot ask a return, is irrelevant. No state may convert any secured liberty into a privilege and issue a license and a fee for it."

"If the state does convert your right into a privilege and issue a license and a fee for it, you can ignore the license and a fee and engage the right with impunity."

3. It must be proven that you did this with a Willful Intent.

Willfulness - "An evil motive or intent to avoid a know duty or task under a law, with a moral certainty."

"Now since the prosecutor does not have a cause of action for which relief can be granted, your Honor, may it please the court, Counsel is specifically precluded performing his major task, therefore, your Honor, may it please the court, at this time, I would Motion most graciously for a dismissal [with] of Prejudice, for failure to state a cause of action for which relief may be granted by this Honorable Court

"Hemparillo". The package had been opened and was resealed with a zip lock type closure. I opened it to find that it contained a "blunt", which is basically a small "cigar" that contains marijuana rather than tobacco.

Big Red Towing responded and towed the vehicle to the north pound where I did a further search. I discovered another smaller (mostly smoked) "blunt" in a compartment in the dash. The total amount of marijuana I recovered was approximately 2 grams. I did an inventory of the vehicle and removed the rear plate as it was unlawfully displayed. It purports to be official, but is not in anyway. I placed the suspected marijuana and the license plate into evidence.

Kayla never did provide any information to identify herself but was eventually identified through LCSO's PLO skip-trace program. Sgt. Nelms ran Kayla's name through the system and came up with information connecting her to North Platte, living at 414 East 6th, which is the homeless shelter. The report indicates she has been living in North Platte, Lincoln County, NE, since 6/19/20. The report also shows Kayla has a drivers license issued out of Iowa. It showed her "residence" at an address in Clinton, IA, but shows a "primary contact address" of 1505 North Sheridan in North Platte. I checked Kayla's Iowa record and found that her license is valid in Iowa, but she has obviously been residing in North Platte over 30 days. I noticed several paycheck stubs issued to Kayla by the USPS in the car which would also indicate she has been employed in North Platte for over 30 days. Therefore Kayla's license is not valid in North Platte, but Officer Proehl failed to cite her for no operator's license.

To clarify Officer Proehl's reason for this stop, a Crime Stoppers tip was received on 10-27-20 from a North Platte resident reporting that Devonte King (who happens to reside with Kayla, was filming live over a You Tube channel driving around North Platte in a silver Toyota with the same kind of plate that Kayla had on her car, basically challenging law enforcement to pull him over. Devonte and Kayla proclaim to be "free travelers" and that their vehicles are "private property" and not subject to any type of action by law enforcement. The roll call item along with a "situational awareness" bulletin was in roll call alerting officers in the event that they stopped Devonte. Devonte and Kayla both have "private property" signs laying on the dash of their cars. Devonte was operating Kayla's vehicle on 9/6/20 when he was stopped by Inv. Miller. At the time Kayla's vehicle was bearing IA. plates JEN988, which incidentally do not expire until 2/2021. Those plates were obviously removed and replaced with the "PRIVAT3" plate displayed on the vehicle when Kayla was stopped. Incidentally, Devonte is listed as a co-owner of the Toyota, which I was not aware of until much later. Devonte left prior to the tow truck arriving, but he doesn't have a drivers license so he wouldn't have been able to drive it either.

CLERK OF COUNTY COU

On December 3rd, 2020 I was on patrol near the intersection of Willow and Rodeo Rd. I noticed that the vehicle in front of me had a license plate of PRIVAT3, which is a fictitious plate. I asked for assistance and Sgt. Hovey #20 arrived on scene a short time later.

I made a traffic stop on this vehicle, and while at the driver's side window, the driver refused to give me any identifying information. The female driver was later identified as Kayla Reed. Kayla advised she was "traveling" with private property and the laws don't apply to her.

While at the driver's side window I could smell a strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. I also noticed that Kayla was trying to call someone from her cell phone. She ended up on a video call with who I presume is her partner, as he showed up onto the scene and started to record the traffic stop. The male was yelling at Kayla to give us the information that we needed to write a citation. She either ignored the male, or couldn't hear him during this time.

The only information I was able to get about the vehicle was the VIN-JTDBR32E660063492, which comes back to a red 2006 Toyota Camry.

During this whole encounter Kayla had the vehicle in drive, doors locked, and the driver's side window rolled down approximately one inch. Kayla was advised if she continued to be uncooperative with officers, that we would have no choice but to break the passenger side window to gain entry. Kayla finally placed the car in drive and unlocked the doors.

Kayla was placed under arrest for Obstructing a Police Officer [28-906], Class 1 Misdemeanor, Fictitious Display of Plates [60-396(1)A].

Narrative

Officer Proehl requested assistance after conducting a traffic stop at Rodeo Road and Oak. The driver, later identified as Kayla Reed, was refusing to provide any personal information as to who she was or concerning her vehicle. She insisted that she was not driving she was "traveling" and doesn't think that Nebraska laws apply to her. When I arrived and walked up to where Officer Proehl was standing at the drivers side of the car, I could smell a strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. Kayla had her window rolled down by only about an inch. Kayla refused to provide any information, and refused to roll down her window, or exit her vehicle in spite of numerous requests and pleas to do so. I told her that she would likely be released with a citation if she cooperated other she would otherwise go to jail for obstructing a police officer. I obtained the VIN from the vehicle in an attempt to identify who Kayla was, however I left off the first digit of VIN as I was having difficulty reading it off the dash. Therefore dispatch advised there was no record in Nebraska or surrounding states. I later found a item in the car showing that Kayla once resided in Illinois, so with the proper VIN dispatch was able to determine the vehicle was once licensed in Illinois but that registration was expired.

Kayla was on her phone during this time possibly recording the conversation, and also texting someone. A short time later a male subject (believed to be Devonta King showed up across the street and started video taping us on his phone. He obviously overheard us telling Kayla that she needed to provide her personal information as he too told her to give us her name. After numerous pleas to cooperate, Kayla still refused. Therefore I told her that she left us no option but to break her window to extricate her. I told her she needed to open the door and exit the vehicle as she was under arrest for obstructing a police officer. I told her several times, very sternly. I went around to the passenger side with the intent to break in the vehicle if necessary. I was concerned that Kayla could be injured by flying glass if I did hit the window and I did not have a window punch to safely break the window. Fortunately, Kayla put the car in park which caused the doors to unlock. I opened the door on the passenger side and Officer Proehl opened the driver's door. It appeared that Kayla was going to try and drive off but thankfully she didn't and got out on the drivers side as instructed at that point. She was then handcuffed and taken into custody.

Once Officer Proehl placed Kayla into the back of his car I entered the vehicle and conducted a search. There was a very strong odor of marijuana inside the vehicle. I came across a purple package in the console that I initially thought was a cigarillo (small cigar). I could feel what I thought was a small cigar inside so I didn't open it. I continued my search but did not locate any. Kayla had a purse on the passenger seat that I went through, partly to try and identify who she was. I was able to determine that her name was Kayla P. Reed by a USPS employee badge (with her picture on it), and that she resides at 1505 North Sheridan (from several paycheck stubs (from the USPS), but I did not locate her date of birth, or anything else to determine if she had a drivers license. Later on while waiting for a tow truck I went back and checked he purple package. I looked at the package more closely and noticed that it was labeled "4 Hemp Wraps" and

All of which I swear and affirm to be true.

On December 4th, 2020 I was on patrol when I noticed that a vehicle at the intersection of Rodeo RD & Willow had the license plate PR1VAT3. The plate is fake so I made a traffic stop on that vehicle. The driver was also told multiple times to get out of the vehicle but stayed in the driver's seat with the car still in drive. There was also a strong odor of marijuana coming out of the vehicle, from the window that she had slightly rolled down. Once she was advised that the passenger side window would be busted to gain entry, she put the car in park and unlocked the doors.
